

Intermediate

Editor's note: An 8-1/2" square makes a 5-1/2" body with an 8" wing spread. Use thin monicolor paper such as tissue paper.

1.

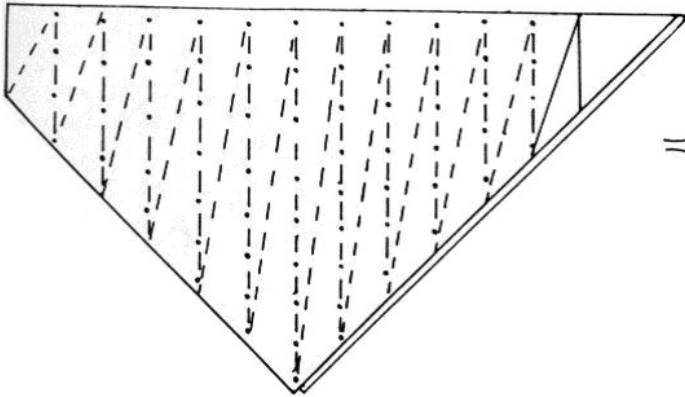

2. Enlarged view. Valley crease as shown.
Turn over.

3.

4. Shape tail in lower left corner while mountain folding model in half. Rotate model.

5. Start to shape body and wings by collapsing model on the valley and mountain creases as shown to form pleats on both sides of model. Start the collapsing at the left near the tail.

6. Outside reverse on the valley crease to form head.

7. Fold wings down on front and back.

8. Completed model.